1. On 17 April 1951, about 20 officers with maps, who were apparently engaged in a map reconnaissance exercise, were seen in the terrain east of the Flak Kaserne in Baden (O 49/K 37) on the road to Soos (O 49/W 68).

2. Gate guards at Doblhof Castle wore black-bordered black epaulets. Military personnel, including two majors, who entered and left the castle also wore black-bordered black epaulets. Six motor vehicles were parked in the castle yard.

3. Soldiers wearing hospital clothing looked out of the windows at 98-100 Helenenthal.

25X1C

4. The Helenenthalhof was occupied by troops who wore black-bordered black epaulets. Some of the troops were cleaning about 20 trucks standing in the garages.

5. [REDACTED] was parked in front of the radio station at the intersection of Braungasse and Muehlgasse. Sentries observed there were red-bordered black epaulets.

25X1C Soos

6. [REDACTED] was identified at the three-mast radio station in Soos on 17 April. In addition to the radio hut with four antenna poles east of Soos, another radio station of the same type was observed a distance of 10 to 15 meters from the first station.
